

STOCKLINCH PARISH COUNCIL

Minutes of Parish Council Meeting held on Wednesday 17th March, 2010 at 8 p.m. in the Village Hall

1. Welcome and Apologies:

Present: Brian Faulkner; Ros Harding; Rob Rainbow; Alison Corr ; Derek Yeomans; Rosie Gallagher; Ursula McKinlay

Apologies: Fred Faulkner; Trevor Tratt

Brian opened the meeting and welcomed Rosie Gallagher to the Council.

2. Declarations of Interest: None

3. Minutes of Previous Meeting:

Minutes of meeting held on 27/1/10 were taken as read and Brian Faulkner signed them as being correct.

4. Accounts Payable:

- SALC £30.63 (Annual Membership Fee)

Alison Corr proposed this account be paid, seconded by Ros Harding

5. Correspondence:

- Councillor Derek Yeoman's Newsletter:
Derek advised of the new Sortit + 5 collection arrangements which means owing to a grant from Marks & Spencers plastic and card will soon be collected with other recycled waste. Rob Rainbow raised the issue of plasterboard not being accepted at the Yeovil site. Derek said he has this matter in hand. He also advised the District Councils of E.Devon and South Somerset have now got a common Chief Executive Officer (Mr. Mark Williams)

Resignation of chief executive SSDC

Brian read out a letter from SSDC advising of this resignation owing to the new arrangement of South Somerset and East Devon District Councils working together.

S.Somerset Role & Function study - Ilminster

Brian advised we had received information on this and this would be placed in the circulation box for Councillors to read.

8. Matters of Report:

- BT phone Box
Ursula reported that she had received the agreement form for completion for us to adopt the kiosk. The issue of insuring the kiosk was raised and Ursula said she would look into this.
- Local Policing:
Following the burglary at Court Hay, Stoney Lane it was felt that a Neighbourhood Watch scheme should be set up if we could get a volunteer to co-ordinate this arrangement. Rob Rainbow elected to circulate a flyer around the village to determine whether a resident would be willing to undertake this.

- Owl Street Survey:
Ros advised she had conducted a survey of Owl Street residents regarding the confusion over the name. Most residents preferred Owl Street to Main Street, although the two oldest residents insisted the original name was Main Street. Ursula said she would forward the survey to the Council.

9. Date and Time of next meeting
